Waterfront Website Comment Board Summary

October 15, 2011

1. A posting stating that there appears to be confusion in the City “regarding the right of the City to uphold the 1992 zoning” but CAAWP believes the City had “every right to change, down-zone if you will, all the properties along the waterfront as it did in 1992.”
2. A posting providing an assessment of the proposed zoning relative floor area, flood plain, and parking requirements.
